

Italy is undergoing an affordability renaissance as new hotspots such as Calabria emerge and developers offer highly affordable developments in Umbria and Tuscany

Liguria: from €136,500 (£92,500)

What you get This formerly-derelict 13th-century Ligurian hill village has been renovated and turned into an Italian paradise. It includes a communal pool, sauna and open-air theatre, all just 15 minutes by car from the sea and a local golf course. Coletta Di Castelbianco was also one of the first communities in Europe to become an 'e-village' so getting on broadband internet is an absolute doddle.
