

The beautiful Tuscan countryside

Win a break for two in Tuscany

Two nights at the delightful Ville degli Olivi estate with CityJet flights to Florence

Perched on a cliff overlooking the Tuscan hills, the beautiful Ville degli Olivi estate in Lajatico has been transformed into five stylish one- to three-bed apartments, with extraordinary panoramas over the surrounding vineyards and olive orchards.

Enter our competition and you could be flying to Florence, courtesy of CityJet, and spending two nights in a one-bed apartment at Ville degli Olivi. Your prize also includes a private tasting of wines from the Bocelli estate – world-famous tenor Andrea Bocelli was born and grew up in Lajatico and his family is renowned for making great wines. Andrea's brother Alberto, an architect, is part of the team behind Ville degli Olivi. Together with boutique developers Realitalia, he has helped to breathe new life into the ancient 300-year-old house. There will also be three three-bed townhouses on the estate, newly built but in traditional style, with exposed timbers and fireplaces.
